THE AUTO TIE THAT BINDS.

"Autos develop fellow-feeling," is the caption of an interview in The Washington Post with an auto enthusiast whose experience is that "it takes an automobile to bring out the human side of a man's nature."

An illustration of this human feature—this link of brotherhood between motorists, is given in the story of a machine in trouble.

It was fast in the mud, and count was kept of the number of machines that stopped while their owners offered suggestions. No less than forty-nine motorists drove up and proffered assistance.

Mr. T. C. Corwin, autist of Columbus,

Ohio, relates another incident of the road which he vouches for, and considers as good the unexampled limit in auto accommodation. He tells The Washington Post that he saw a motorist stop to help a woman who had run out of gasoline. The man emptied a perfectly good quart of Scotch whisky that he might have a receptacle to carry the gasoline from his machine to his fair neighbors. That, says the narrator, "was the greatest sacrifice I ever saw performed by any motorist!"

LESSONS-WAR MAY TEACH.

The Corsicans (Texas) Sun, speaking for the farmers of that section, says that the war will have done one good thing if it teaches them to live at home. They are learning lessons along this line, and are applying them where good results are promised—indeed, they are sure to follow:

When the farmers commenced raising all the meat they use and raise their own meat, they found that the butcher's bill was never in use at their house, there will be no more of the butcher's bill. They will be no more of the butcher's bill. They will

An' they ain't no happiness at all wherever

I may roam, I see him go

I only seek the honey to find the empty comb!

II.

I roam the snake-wild woodlands at morn

An' twilight dim,

But not a rattler bites me, though the juvs

full of the brim;

An' then the "lon in the way"—full speed

I cannot catch an' sell him for a fortune to a show.

III.

O world of tribulation, so full of problems

dear!

I never find the money that I dream of in my sleep!

But though the Righteous suffer on this lowly earth of ours,

They hold a first fair mortgage on Eden's blissful bowers.

What's the matter?

The Commerce News gives this juicy information in its editorial comment:

"A real buffet, it is said (honestly, we never saw one) is a place where beer on ice, mint-julep, peach and honey, old rye, mountain dew, hot balls, corn liquor and boose are kept."

The Holland Letter

The prime minister of Great Britain, Mr.

Asquith, was reported to have said a day or two ago, when speaking in the house of commons, that the daily expenditure on account of the war has been—nearly twelve million dollars. On the same day The Wall Street Journal reported the result of an estimate made by the British with favorable results. Conditions there would be earned in new wealth derived from the American grain crops approximately twelve million dollars. The accumulation of Cuba 6, Dodgers 1.—Chicago, June 20.—Here's a right pitching and three home runs by Chicago batters gave the Cubs the Brookline today. After making a poor start, Alphonso did fairly well. Schulte and Saler hit homers in the ninth and tenth, and the Cubs won in the fourth. A fumble by Alphonso helped one run around in the second.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Dodgers, 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Batteries—Cuba: Miller; and Pierce and Bresnahan.

Reds 5, Phillies 1.—Cincinnati, June 20.—Only twenty-four men faced Dale in the first inning today, but he weakened in the ninth and was forced to give way to Benton, who stopped Philadelphia's hitting streak just in time, and Cincinnati won, 5 to 1. Lenore was hit off.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Phillies, 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Batteries—Cincinnati: Miller; and Dale, Benton and Knicker.

Cardinals 2, Braves 2.—St. Louis, June 20.—St. Louis made it four straight and moved into second place in the league race today by defeating the Braves, 2 to 2. The Cardinals started poorly, but were relieved in the fifth after leading 2 to 0. The Braves then came back and had a double, which combined with the Cardinals' error and failed to bat. The Cardinals won, 2 to 1. Lenore was hit off.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
St. Louis, 2 0 0 0 0 1 1 1 1 1
